In addition to adopting resort-wide wellness initiatives, Kalahari follows county, state, and CDC guidelines. At this time, there is not a mask requirement for guests or staff, but physical distancing is encouraged, and sanitizer stations are located throughout the resort. To assure that everyone returns home infection-free, masks should be worn during the conference when not eating or drinking for your own safety and out of respect for others. At our request, the hotel staff will also be masked. If you are sick or otherwise do not feel well, do not attend the conference.
